

As a leading pub retailer and brewer in the UK, Greene King chose AuditKind to help support its corporate responsibility to food safety and supply, environmental impact and responsible retailing. With over 2,400 pubs AuditKind automates health and safety auditing and compliance reporting.

AuditKind, Linac's mobile and on-line auditing software, was Greene King's preferred solution of choice to meet their auditing, compliance and legislative needs. AuditKind was tailored to Greene King's specific requirements to streamline their auditing processes and allow immediate access to the status of all audits.

Key benefits include:

- On site completion of audits- reducing valuable time and money
- Instant feedback and audit ratings to guarantee regulatory and legislative compliance, significantly reducing risk.
- 24/7 integrated management reporting suite, ensuring instant statistical analysis of reports.
- Streamlined workflows, increasing the effectiveness of the communication process.
- Ease of use and a highly intuitive end user experience.
